A Serious Accident. Near Bethel Church, on Saturday last, while playing base ball, Messrs. W. M. Brown and Edward McKov ran to catch a ball on the fly, when they collided, causing serious injuries. The former had his forehead cut open, skull cracked, nose broken and was also badly ruptured, for life. The latter had his teeth knocked loose and his lip cut through, which had to be sewed up. Drs. Dick and DuBose were summoned to attend

This is another sad warning to the players of base ball. It is our opinion that it is about time for base ball to "play out."

The Sumter Light Infantry. At the last regular meeting of the Company the following was adopted:
